Developing the PRINCIPLES OF GOOD PRACTICE

FOR STUDENT AFFAIRS AT CATHOLIC COLLEGES AND UNIVERSITIES

STEPS TAKEN IN THE DOCUMENT'S CREATION, IMPLEMENTATION, AND DEVELOPMENT

2005

Conversation with the Congregation for Catholic Education during the ACCU Rome Seminar sparks the idea for the Principles initiative

2006

Sponsorship for the project secured from the leadership of ACCU, ASACCU, and JASPA

November: Writers meet for weekend retreat at Wye River, MD, to develop first draft

2007

Draft document shared for feedback at national meetings of ACCU, ASACCU, and JASPA

December: Final document sent to presidents and senior student affairs officers of all Catholic colleges and universities in North America

2009

Principles assessment project authorized by ACCU, ASACCU, and JASPA

November: Principles assessment retreat at Wye River

2010

Vetting the diagnostic queries and preparing second edition

December: Second edition sent to presidents and senior student affairs officers of all Catholic colleges and universities in North America

2012

Publication of Building the Capacity for Mission through Use of the Principles of Good Practice for Student Affairs at Catholic Colleges and Universities, Catholic Education

2016

Publication of Student Life in Catholic Higher Education: Advancing Good Practice

© 2022 Association of Catholic Colleges and Universities